English Department Essay Contest

Prizes
From Bedford St. Martin’s Publishers

- The first place: $100 American Express gift card
- A second place: $50 American Express gift card
- A third place: $25 American Express gift card

Once again the English Department would like to honor the best prose writers on campus.

The essay contest is open to every student in the college. Students are to submit an expository essay of 500-750 words on any subject.

Format: Essays must be double spaced.

The student’s name, student ID, and phone number should be written on a cover page so that judges can contact the student, if necessary. The student’s name should not appear on the pages of the essay.

If the student is currently enrolled in an English course, the name of the student’s teacher should also be included on the title page.

Winners will be contacted by 4/30.

Deadline: April 23, 2010 at 11:59 p.m.
