The integrals represent the areas between the curves. The left integral calculates the area from 0 to 2.5, the middle integral calculates the area from 2.5 to 3, and the right integral calculates the area from 3 to 5.

The final area is calculated by summing these integrals, resulting in an area of approximately 13.33 square units.